

BOD MEMBER BIO

EDMOND COKU

Edmond Coku has an extensive international experience in strategic investments. He is specialized in building teams, creating go to market strategies and scaled expansion operations for some of the biggest companies in the market of United States of America.

Mr. Coku has a distinguished expertise in management of Lehman Brothers' equity/GP ownership in DE Shaw and GLG Partners. He is an individual with strong business acumen and comprehensive judgment.

Mr. Coku is Board Trustee of American University in Kosovo Foundation (RIT Kosovo) (2015-present) and President's Advisory Council at Manhattanville College (2012-present).

Mr. Coku holds a Masters of Business Administration from Stanford Graduate School of Business and a BA, Computer Science & Finance (double-major) from Manhattanville College of New York USA.

Media contacts:

Press Office: mp@abi.al