BERNADETT D'AMICO

Ms. Bernadett D'Amico is a distinguished management consultant and strategic advisor with more than two decades of experience in the financial services sector across both developed and emerging markets.

Since 2014, she has advised senior executives at the International Finance Corporation (IFC) on strategy development, business transformation, operational performance, and technology integration, driving impact across a USD 5.4 billion investment portfolio and USD 100+ million advisory program spanning 38 countries. She also co-designed the Women Entrepreneurs Finance Code, a global initiative that has launched pilot programs in 24 countries to expand access to finance for women-owned businesses.

Prior to joining IFC, Ms. D'Amico was an Associate Partner at McKinsey & Company, where she advised boards of directors and senior management teams of leading financial institutions across the United States and Eastern Europe. She began her career in investment banking at Donaldson, Lufkin & Jenrette (DLJ) in London and New York.

She previously served as a member of the Board of Directors of the American International School of Budapest.

Ms. D'Amico holds an MBA from Harvard Business School and graduated summa cum laude with a Bachelor of Science in Finance and Economics from Georgetown University
